Chief, CCIS/ICS

SUBJECT: Office Call by Foreign Intelligence
Surveillance Court Judge

1. Judge Dudley B. Bonsal, newly appointed to the U.S. Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court (FISC) to complete the unexpired term of Judge Lawrence Pierce, is scheduled to call on the DCI and DDCI jointly at 1115 hours on Tuesday, 12 January.

2. A biography on Judge Bonsal is attached.

3. Background: It has become customary for new FISC Judges to visit and be briefed by the Department of Justice, FBI, NSA and the DCI incident to their service on the Court. The initial panel of seven Judges plus three appellate-level Judges for FISC matters (who have never had occasion to meet) visited CIA Headquarters for briefings on 14 December 1979. The two Judges appointed to fill rotational terms on the FISC visited here on 15 May 1980 and 10 June 1981, respectively.

4. Judge Bonsal will receive his security indoctrination and Department of Justice briefings the morning of 11 January. He will visit the FBI the afternoon of that day. Following his visit with us on 12 January, he will call on the Director, NSA for a briefing by that agency. That will complete his briefing schedule. He is not expected to hear any FISC applications until late spring 1982.

5. Before the meeting with the DCI and DDCI on 12 January, Stan Sporkin, and I will discuss with Judge Bonsal the DCI role in FISC procedures and intelligence production use of materials acquired from surveillances authorized by the Court. He will also meet briefly with John McMahon.
